In the article specified, that legal frameworks of organization of labour of the celled prisons of the Taurida province pawned the decrees of April, 18 1922, on March, 25 1929 and “Instruction to Guards of prison locks” 1832 Nevertheless these decrees were unperfect and partly torn off from reality because the features of development of works of prisoners did not take into account all in certain regions. On this basis to organize system employments of prisoners productive labours in the Таврической province not succeeded long time. Only by the end of 1850th the relatively successful attempts of organization at prisons of region of external works of prisoners were undertaken and steps are done on creation of different workshops into prisons. However they were in this period insignificant and could not overcome the bulk of population of prisons. Nevertheless this experience played the role in development of such works in subsequent.
